

Consumer Grievance Redressal

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide its notification dated February 17, 2021 has issued Master Direction - Non-Banking Financial Company – Housing Finance Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2021 (“Master Direction”). As per Chapter XIII (Fair Practices Code) of said Master Direction all the Housing Finance Companies (HFCs) are required to adhere with Fair Practices Code to serve as a part of best corporate practices and to provide transparency in business practices. The said guidelines require every HFC to have a system and a procedure for receiving, registering and disposing of complaints and grievances in each of its offices.

The Company has adopted a “Policy on Consumer Grievance Redressal”, which is available on the website of the Company. The policy document, deals with how the ‘Customer Grievances’ received by the Company will be dealt with, by whom, within what time-frame. A record of all Customer Grievances will be maintained by the Company in such form as is feasible and all grievances will be reported to the Management in an appropriate forum and format along with details of steps taken for redressal thereof.

Our policy on Consumer Grievance Redressal follows the under noted principles.

Customers to be treated fairly at all times. Complaints raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and without undue delay. Customers are fully informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization and their rights to alternative remedy, if they are not fully satisfied with the response of the company to their complaints. All complaints to be dealt with efficiently and fairly as otherwise they can damage our reputation and business. Our employees would work in good faith and without prejudice to the interests of the customer.

Modes of sending grievance:

Physical:

- For collating all customer complaints/grievances, JM Financial Home Loans Ltd (“JMFHLL”) will make available Complaint Registers at each Branch and attend to/address those at the respective Branch/es itself.
